

Epiphany School Summer Reading Bingo

Name: _____

Read in a silly place.	Listen to a story.	Read twice in one day.	Read about animals. (Bonus for bees, in honor of Pollination Week – June 20-26)	Read in your pajamas.
Read while wearing a hat on your head.	Read about a sport. (Bonus if it's a summer sport!)	Read under the covers or in a fort.	Read to a stuffed animal or a pet.	Read a book that makes you feel happy.
Read tongue twisters, jokes, or riddles out loud.	Read with a pillow.	Free space.	Read about a June, July, or August holiday.	Read a book that a friend likes.
Read before bedtime.	Read about ice cream in honor of National Ice Cream Month (July).	Read a book that makes you laugh.	Read a book that takes place during the summer.	Read on a sunny, rainy, or windy day.
Read about dogs in honor of National Dog Month (August).	Read a book recommended to you.	Read a graphic novel or comic book.	Read a book in honor of LGBTQIA+ Pride Month (June).	Read with a family member.

Join the summer reading fun by completing as much of the bingo sheet as you can! For example, if you are reading a picture book with a pillow, put the book title in the "read with a pillow" bingo box. If you are reading a chapter book to a stuffed animal or a pet, put the chapter book title in the "read to a stuffed animal or a pet" bingo box. Remember, if someone reads to you, you read or listen on Epic, or you read or listen on Raz-Kids, that counts as reading!

Return your bingo sheet to Jen W. by Friday, September 9 so you can attend the Summer Reading Celebration (with popsicles!) on Friday, September 16!
